Please join us this year at the Rocky Ripple Festival of the Arts for a fun day of art, music, and food in a unique Indianapolis north side neighborhood.

The festival is held in Rocky Ripple Hohlt Park (840 W. 53rd St), across the Canal near Butler U., and is free to the public.

The intent of the Rocky Ripple Festival is to showcase arts and crafts produced by artisans from the Indiana region. This is not a juried show, but the Rocky Ripple Community Association reserves the right to exclude work not designed and/or produced by the exhibitor.

Guideline for artists:

- Early bird registration fee for a 10' by 10' space is $50.00 until August 31st. Cost thereafter is $75.00. Team up and share.
- Display tents are the responsibility of the vendor.
- Tables available to rent for $10.00 while supply lasts. Order soon.
- There will be sixty booth spaces available.

We will feature a festival page on our website www.rockyripple.org with the names and websites of artists as they register.
