

VOLUNTEERS MAKE IT HAPPEN

VOLUME 8 ISSUE 7

AUTUMN EDITION—OCTOBER 2008

The 9th Annual Arts Festival in Hohlt Park was an outstanding success!!!

Preliminary figures indicate we grossed over $7,000.00 through the combined efforts of everyone who volunteered time or donated items to this event. This is a great example of what can be accomplished through volunteer efforts.

Thank you Everyone who contributed – Great Job!!!

Special Thanks go out to each of the Committee Chairs who devote several months of time and talent every year.

Some possible uses for a portion of the net earnings under consideration:

- New mulch for the playground
- Filling ruts and low spots in Hohlt Park
- Replacing or adding playground equipment
- Purchasing a bicycle rack to be located at Wappahani Park in front of the Town Hall,

The remainder of the funds will be deposited into a CD with the best yield available for the short term until the stock market settles down and it can be transferred to the Endowment Fund.

Chili Supper and Halloween Howl

What a great turnout! The hall looked great thanks to the efforts of Diane & grandson Ben, Mandy, Karen & son John.

This may have been the best attended Chili Supper in the last 6 years. Thank you to each of you who contributed to the dinner. We had hummus to spread on our fresh baked bread, several chili choices, fresh salad, home made cookies & brownies & hot chocolate to wash it all down.

Hohlt Park,, decorated under the direction of Ann Wickham by Geoffrey and Kathryn with critiques from little Tommy, Karen and son John and haunted by a cast of characters from our young people in the neighborhood and our young at heart, was a huge success, I heard more than one child say they rode on every ride.

The bonfire, compliments of Paul, was a great finale to the evening's events. He is also responsible for hooking up & outfitting our wagon with straw bales for the hayride every year.

Thank you, all who stayed to help cleanup Saturday night and un-decorate the park on Sunday. Great community effort and another fun filled event.
